ARUN SUBRAMANIAN, United States District Judge:

Plaintiff, who is currently held in the George R. Vierno Center on Rikers Island, filed this action asserting claims under federal and state law. By order dated May 4, 2023, the court granted Plaintiff's request to proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP").¹ By separate order issued today, the court denied Defendants' motion to revoke Plaintiff's IFP status.

The Court: (1) requests that the identified defendants waive service of summonses; (2) directs the identified defendants to comply with Local Civil Rule 33.2; and (3) directs the Corporation Counsel of the City of New York to provide the Court and Plaintiff the identities and, if appropriate, badge numbers of the unidentified defendants.

DISCUSSION

A. Identified defendants

The Court directs the Clerk of Court to notify the New York City Department of Correction ("DOC") and the New York City Law Department of this order. The Court requests that the following defendants waive service of summonses, if they have not done so already: (1) the City of New York; (2) the Warden of the North Infirmity Command ("NIC"); (3) NIC

¹ Prisoners are not exempt from paying the full filing fee, even when they have been granted permission to proceed IFP. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1).

Deputy Warden Booker; (4) DOC Correction Captain Fernandez; (5) DOC Correction Officer Gomez; and (6) DOC Gang Intelligence Officer Chambers.

B. Local Civil Rule 33.2

Local Civil Rule 33.2, which requires defendants in certain types of prisoner cases to respond to specific, court-ordered discovery requests, applies to this action. Those discovery requests are available on the court's website under "Forms" and are titled "Plaintiff's Local Civil Rule 33.2 Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents." Within 120 days of the date of this order, the identified defendants must serve responses to those standard discovery requests. In their responses, the identified defendants must quote each request verbatim.²

C. Unidentified defendants

Under Valentin v. Dinkins, a pro se litigant is entitled to assistance from the district court in identifying unidentified defendants. 121 F.3d 72, 76 (2d Cir. 1997). In the complaint, Plaintiff supplies sufficient information to permit the DOC to identify the unidentified defendants. They include: (1) any DOC personnel involved in transferring Plaintiff, on or about December 15, 2021, from the NIC to any other DOC facility, including the Bellevue Hospital Prison Ward; (2) any DOC personnel involved in the storage and maintenance of Plaintiff's personal property at the NIC when Plaintiff was transferred from that facility on or about December 15, 2021, until January 21, 2022; and (3) the DOC Gang Intelligence officer who, along with DOC Gang Intelligence Officer Chambers, on or about January 21, 2022, allegedly returned to Plaintiff seven bags of Plaintiff's personal property. It is therefore ordered that the Corporation Counsel of the City of New York, who is the attorney for and agent of the DOC, must ascertain the identity and, if appropriate, badge number of each of the unidentified defendants whom Plaintiff seeks to sue here and the address where each of those defendants may be served.³ The Corporation Counsel must provide this information to Plaintiff and the Court within 60 days of the date of this order.

Within 30 days of receiving this information, Plaintiff must file an amended complaint naming the newly identified defendants. The amended complaint will replace, not supplement, the original complaint. An amended complaint form that Plaintiff should complete is attached to this order. Once Plaintiff has filed an amended complaint, the Court will screen the amended complaint and, if necessary, issue an order requesting that the newly identified defendants waive service of summonses, and directing them to comply with Local Civil Rule 33.2.

D. New York Legal Assistance Group

Plaintiff may consult the legal clinic opened in this judicial district to assist people who are parties in civil cases, but who do not have lawyers. The clinic is operated by a private organization called the New York Legal Assistance Group (“NYLAG”); it is not part of, or operated by, the court (and, among other things, therefore, it cannot accept filings on behalf of the court, which must still be filed by a pro se party in the court’s Pro Se Intake Unit).

To receive limited-scope assistance from the clinic, Plaintiff may mail a signed retainer and intake form to the NYLAG Pro Se Clinic at 40 Foley Square, LL22, New York, New York

³ If any unidentified defendant is a current or former DOC employee or official, the Corporation Counsel should note in the response to this order that an electronic request for a waiver of service can be made under the e-service agreement for cases involving DOC defendants, rather than personal service at a DOC facility. If an unidentified defendant is not a current or former DOC employee or official, but otherwise works or worked at a DOC facility, the Corporation Counsel must provide a residential address where that individual may be served.

Once the paperwork is received, the clinic will coordinate contact with the litigant. Once received, it may take up to two weeks for the clinic to contact the litigant. Copies of the clinic's flyer, retainer, and intake form are attached to this order.

CONCLUSION

The Court directs the Clerk of Court to mail an information package to Plaintiff.

The Court also directs the Clerk of Court to notify the New York City Department of Correction ("DOC") and the New York City Law Department of this order. The Court requests that, if they have not done so already, the following defendants waive service of summonses: (1) the City of New York; (2) the Warden of the North Infirmity Command ("NIC"); (3) NIC Deputy Warden Booker; (4) DOC Correction Captain Fernandez; (5) DOC Correction Officer Gomez; and (6) DOC Gang Intelligence Officer Chambers.

The Court further directs those defendants to comply with Local Civil Rule 33.2 within 120 days of the date of this order.

The Court additionally directs the Clerk of Court to mail a copy of this order and the complaint to the Corporation Counsel of the City of New York, at 100 Church Street, New York, New York 10007.

An amended complaint form is attached to this order. A flyer, retainer, and intake form from NYLAG are also attached to this order.

SO ORDERED.
